Emily Aziz, CPA
Crowe Horwath LLP

PROGRAM 1 (2 Hours CPE)

Tax Reform and Your Bottom Line: Domestic Aspects of Tax Reform

Field of Study: Tax

Learning Objective: This session will provide an overview of the corporate and general tax provisions included in the "Tax Cuts and Jobs Act". In addition, the session will include a discussion on the pass through entity provisions as well as changes to the individual tax rules. Clarifications issued prior to the seminar date will also be addressed as applicable.

Emily Aziz is a Tax Senior Manager in the Knoxville office of Crowe Horwath. She has fourteen years of taxation experience in public accounting including ASC 740, federal and state compliance and consulting, tax minimization strategies, and IRS and State audit resolution. Ms. Aziz has provided compliance and consulting services to middle market companies, private equity groups, and SEC registrants. Her industry expertise includes manufacturing and distribution, service industries, retail, and agriculture.

Edna Varner
Public Education Foundation

PROGRAM 2 (2 Hours CPE)

Implementing the Habits & Strengths of Effective People

Field of Study: Personal Development

Learning Objective: Attendees will learn how to make the best of their habits and strengths in the workplace. With a touch of humor, you will get a quick refresher of Covey's Seven Habits and Buckingham's Strengthsfinder, along with tips on how to put them to work as you help accomplish some of your organization's most important goals.

Edna Varner is a retired Hamilton County Schools educator, currently working as a senior advisor at the Public Education Foundation. For 12 years she served as the Director of Leadership Development for a national literacy initiative. She has spoken at conferences on two continents, and wrote the leadership column for a national education magazine for 3 years. Edna has been honored as a Woman of Distinction, a local Trailblazer, and an African American Living Legend. She will soon be Dr. Varner, a 2018 graduate of Carson-Newman Univ.

Dennis Dycus, CPA, CFE, CGFM
CPE Trainer, Consultant, Public Speaker

PROGRAM 3 (2 Hours CPE)

Auditing for Fraud

Field of Study: Auditing

Learning Objective: Attendees will learn Fraud Warning Signals. This presentation will include many examples from actual fraud cases. It will emphasize most common warning signals, including who commits fraud, and some of the "red flags" you should look for when trying to detect fraud.

Dennis Dycus is the former Director of the Division of Municipal Audit for the State of Tennessee, Office of the Comptroller of the Treasury. His responsibilities included the oversight of the financial audits of all local governments in Tennessee, with the exception of counties and their affiliated units, as well as conducting investigations related to fraud, waste, and abuse in local governments. Since his retirement he has presented continuing education programs in all fifty states and several countries. He is a former 16 year member of the ACFE's Faculty Board, as well as the 2010 recipient of ACFE's Speaker of the Year Award.
